—Miss Emilie Lee, dressmaker, has returned to Bloomfield, and will be pleased to see her friends.

—Dennis Shawley, an old Montclair Hackman died in the insane asylum on Tuesday. His funeral took place in Montclair Thursday morning.

—The Bee Hive stores (L. S. Plant & Co.) will be closed on Wednesday, the 28th inst., on account of it being a Jewish holiday.

—Residents in the vicinity of Franklin Hill are going to call the attention of the Health Board to the stench arising from the gas works on Newark avenue.

—Brookdale citizens are complaining of the negligence of the town authorities in allowing the brush and weeds to grow up and block the highway in that neighborhood.

—In the court of common pleas last Tuesday the following persons were granted tavern licenses: Arthur Light-hanser, Peter Gieb, Wm. J. Rabb, Timothy Hallinan.

—Parties from Caldwell are desirous of furnishing gravel to be used on Bloomfield roads. They claim that it is of a very superior quality. It is estimated that the cost would be in the neighborhood of $2.17 per load, spread on the road way.

—The feast of "Yom Kippur" the greatest of all Jewish feasts began last Monday. The first day known as "Judgment Day" was appropriately observed by Bloomfield Hebrews.

—Wm. Raab, the hotel keeper, is making alterations in his establishment. He is arranging it so that residents in the southern part of the town can be accommodated with oysters in every style.

—Wm. J. Maginley and Margaret Holt were married on Thursday the 15th, at 5.30 P. M., in the Church of the Sacred Heart. Rev. J. M. Nardello performed the ceremony. Many friends of both parties were present.

—Dr. Harry E. Richards, town counsel, was present at the last meeting of the Town Committee. Several matters concerning apportionment and release of taxes, also the firemen's exemption question were all presented for his consideration and opinion.

—Patrick Carroll, an East Newark fireman who attended the picnic last Saturday night, imbibed a little too freely. He became filled with a desire to shed some Bloomfield blood. A well directed blow from a stone done up in a handkerchief, administered just over the eye, quickly quenched his aspirations.

—On Thursday morning a small greyhound took up its abode at the parsonage of the German Church. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Einslin, took pity on the poor animal, as it had apparently been a long time without food, and has kindly cared for it ever since. The owner can recover his property by calling at the Parsonage, on Park avenue.

—The following conveyances of real estate have been recorded in the County Registers office: Arthur Divine, to F. Liebhauser, $1800; Charles Hen, to H. Samuels, $175; Johanna Mills to J. Barht, $200; A. P. Mitchell to B. Krueger, $300; Moffat, Margaret, to C. L. Pilger, $300; H. W. Suffera to M. Moffat, $500; Henry Schaus to P. Ingold, $325.

—Mr. Wm. B. Dodd was driving along Ridgewood avenue Saturday evening when a singular accident happened to his horse. It suddenly stopped and an examination proved that the animal's left fore leg was broken just above the knee. A sudden wrench caused by stepping on a stone, is assumed to have been the cause of the accident. It was found necessary to shoot the horse to end its sufferings.

—Justice Hall's court room was a scene of confusion and turmoil on Tuesday night. The case of Mrs. Anna Bolton vs. Mrs. Heater came up for trial. Mrs. Heater was accused of usurping maternal authority over Mrs. Bolton's children, by administering chastisement. All the parties in the case were filled with an irresistible desire to all speak at once, and there was so much charging and counter-charging, that the Justice postponed the case until something definite could be ascertained with regard to it.

—We do not like to say anything that would irritate genial John Causbrook, but there are several very pertinent questions placed on file here, that perhaps are worth while calling attention to. Santa Claus wants to know, if Christmas-tree candles are the standard used for testing candle power? Sun-set, who resides in the west end, thinks that in accordance with principles of equity, the lamps ought to be put out on the east side of town first, as the sun rises earlier there. To finish lighting in that vicinity and start putting out there too, indicates a disproportionate share of darkness on west enders. Practical would like to know why it is that one lamp out of every four should be useful, and the other three simply ornamental.

—The members' reception last Friday evening proved to be a grand success, those taking part acquitting themselves admirably, and all seemed well pleased.

—The meeting next Sunday will be led by John Sanderson. Theme: "Inexcusable excuses." Luke 14: 1-24. This service is held from four to five o'clock, and all men are invited.

—The service at Hope Chapel Sunday evening will be conducted by John G. Broughton, and at Montgomery by Marius Belloni.

—It is pretty well known that under the auspices of the Association three evening classes will be held during the winter months, viz. mathematic, gymnasium and German. The class in mathematics will open Monday evening, October 3d, at 7.45, and at 9 o'clock the same evening the gymnasium class will reopen. Both of the above will be taught by Mr. Grant A. Wheeler. At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 5th, a class in German will be organized by Mr. Charles L. Selbert. These classes will be continued at the same hour and evening of each week, during the winter months. All that is useful to join one or all classes is to be a member of the Association, which costs $2 a year. Any young man of good moral character can become a member at once by application to the General Secretary. A list of those who desire to join the classes is on file at the Secretary's office, where it is hoped many more will enroll their names, that the Association may know how many for which to arrange.

Good Roads.

The Road is the physical sign or symbol by which you will best understand any age or people; if they have no roads they are savages; for the road is the creation of man, and a type of civilized society. If you wish to know whether society is stagnant, scholastic, religion a dead formality, you may learn something by going into "universities;" something also by the work that is doing on cathedrals and churches or in them both quite as much by looking at the roads. For if there is any motion in society the road, which is the symbol of motion, will indicate the facts, as roads are the symbols of progress.—Rutherford News.
